

HBReads.org

An Afternoon with Temple Grandin

Wednesday, March 21, 2012

4 pm - 6 pm / $75 per person

RECEPTION TICKET ALSO INCLUDES PRIORITY SEATING AT THE AUTHOR EVENT

ZIMZALA
RESTAURANT · BAR

Shorebreak Hotel
500 Pacific Coast Highway
Huntington Beach, CA 92648

Huntington Beach Reads One Book invites you to an exclusive reception and conversation with Temple Grandin, the author of Emergence: Labeled Autistic. Mingle with the author, city and county dignitaries, local business leaders, autism professionals and supporters of HBReads at this invitation-only event. Enjoy delicious hors d'oeuvres and wine at Zimzala and receive PRIORITY SEATING at the author event which starts at 7 pm at Huntington Beach High School with your ticket purchase.

This event will sell out so purchase your tickets today.

Pay online via credit card or direct debit at <http://www.hbreads.org/reserve.htm>

Pay by check. Please make check payable to HBReads and mail to:

HBReads
419 Main Street, #38
Huntington Beach, CA 92648

Please include names of attendees, your mailing address, contact e-mail and phone number.

If you cannot attend, we encourage you to still participate in our 2 Books for $30 campaign (or $600 for a set of books for one high school) by donating online or via check. We appreciate any contribution amount.

HBReads is made up of community volunteers whose goal is to spread the message of understanding and appreciating diversity within our community. We work in association with the Huntington Beach Public Library and seven area high schools.

Each year we select a book for the HBReads program and develop community activities to support the theme of the book and to engage high school students and the community.

We would also love to encourage you and your family to attend our other dynamic and educational events.

Special thanks to the following for their support:

HUNTINGTON BEACH PUBLIC
LIBRARY
www.hbpl.org

Shorebreak
HOTEL

